Foreword

ll of life is like a book, and each year is a chapter which we write and add to our lives. This MUSTANG is a record in words and pictures of one chapter in the lives of you, the students and faculty of Natrona County High School. You wrote it and the Annual Staff of 1956 has published it.

Although this chapter in our lives was not really begun until September, we all began to prepare for it way last spring in elections, orientation, and registration. Let us look back to those days of anticipation and preparation. Remember with Carl Van Doren,

"Whoever opens this book will find himself in some room of his house of memory."

Main Scene of Action

Mr. MacManus did not seem quite so enthusiastic over the new class rings as Kay Christensen, Barry Crater, and Lynn Bradshaw. The seniors chose rings during their junior year so that the insignia could be worn through 1955 and '56.

Even with Mr. Macomber explaining—the word for that business of schedule arranging and signing was “confusion.”

A bashful freshman, Kit Pirie, learned more about high school life as Whitney Stevens served punch at the annual Orientation Tea.

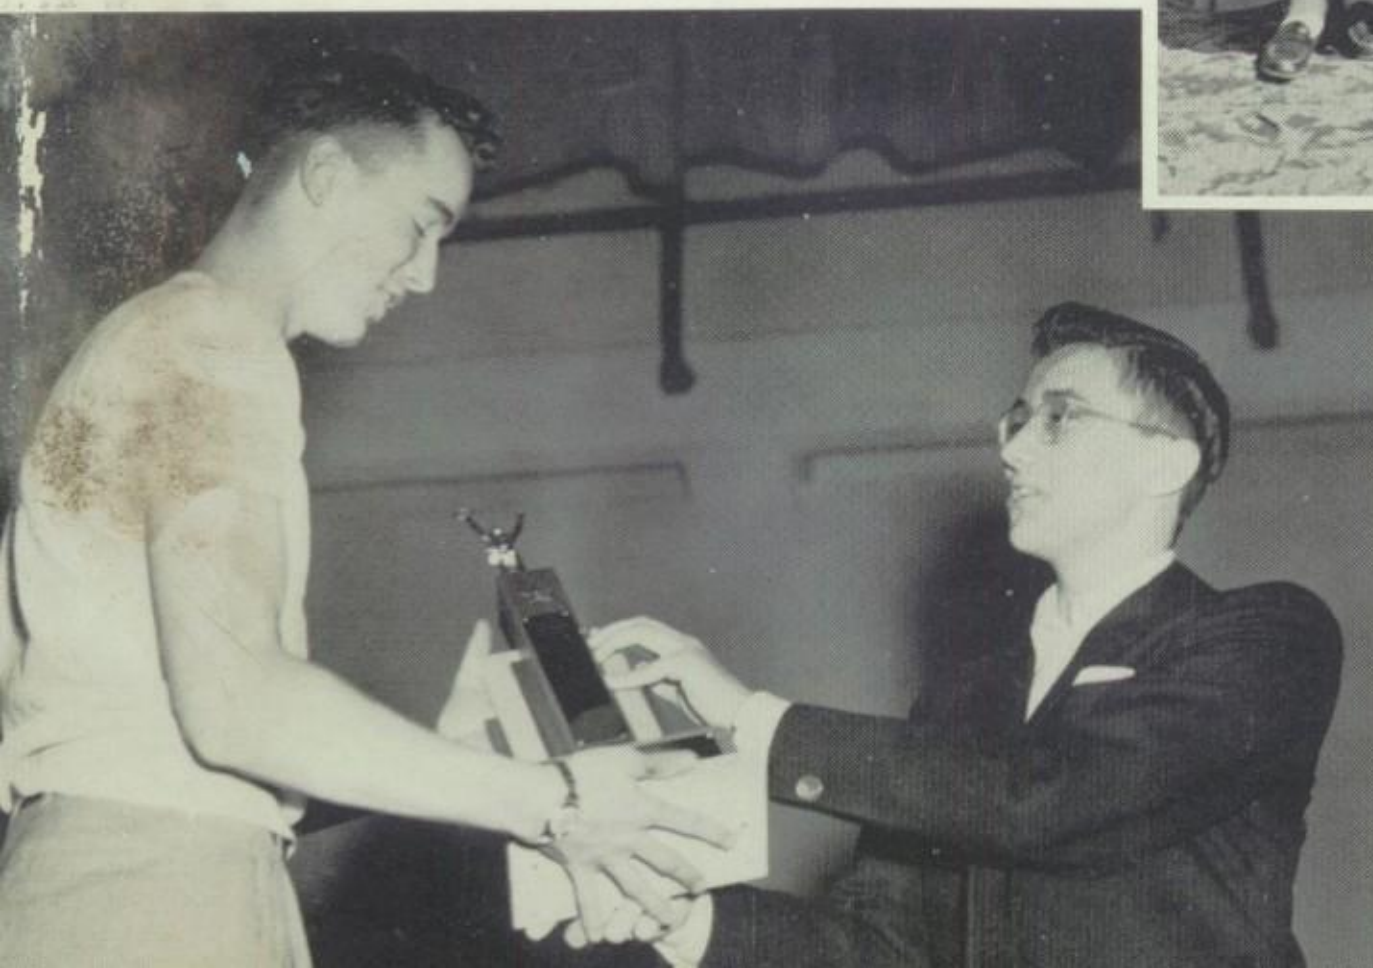

When Debbie Nichols won first place in the state for her essay, "A Decade of Progress in Hiring the Physically Handicapped," Governor Simpson came to Casper and presented her prize. Betsy Crowell was mistress of ceremonies.

Some of the contest winners for 1954-55—Top row: Bob Elfering, poster contest; Carla Duncan, first Civil Defense essay. Bottom row: Marilyn Martin and Martha Hinthorn, runners-up in Civil Defense; Jan Shreffler, first in the American history essay contest; Debbie Nichols, winner of the essay in hiring the handicapped.

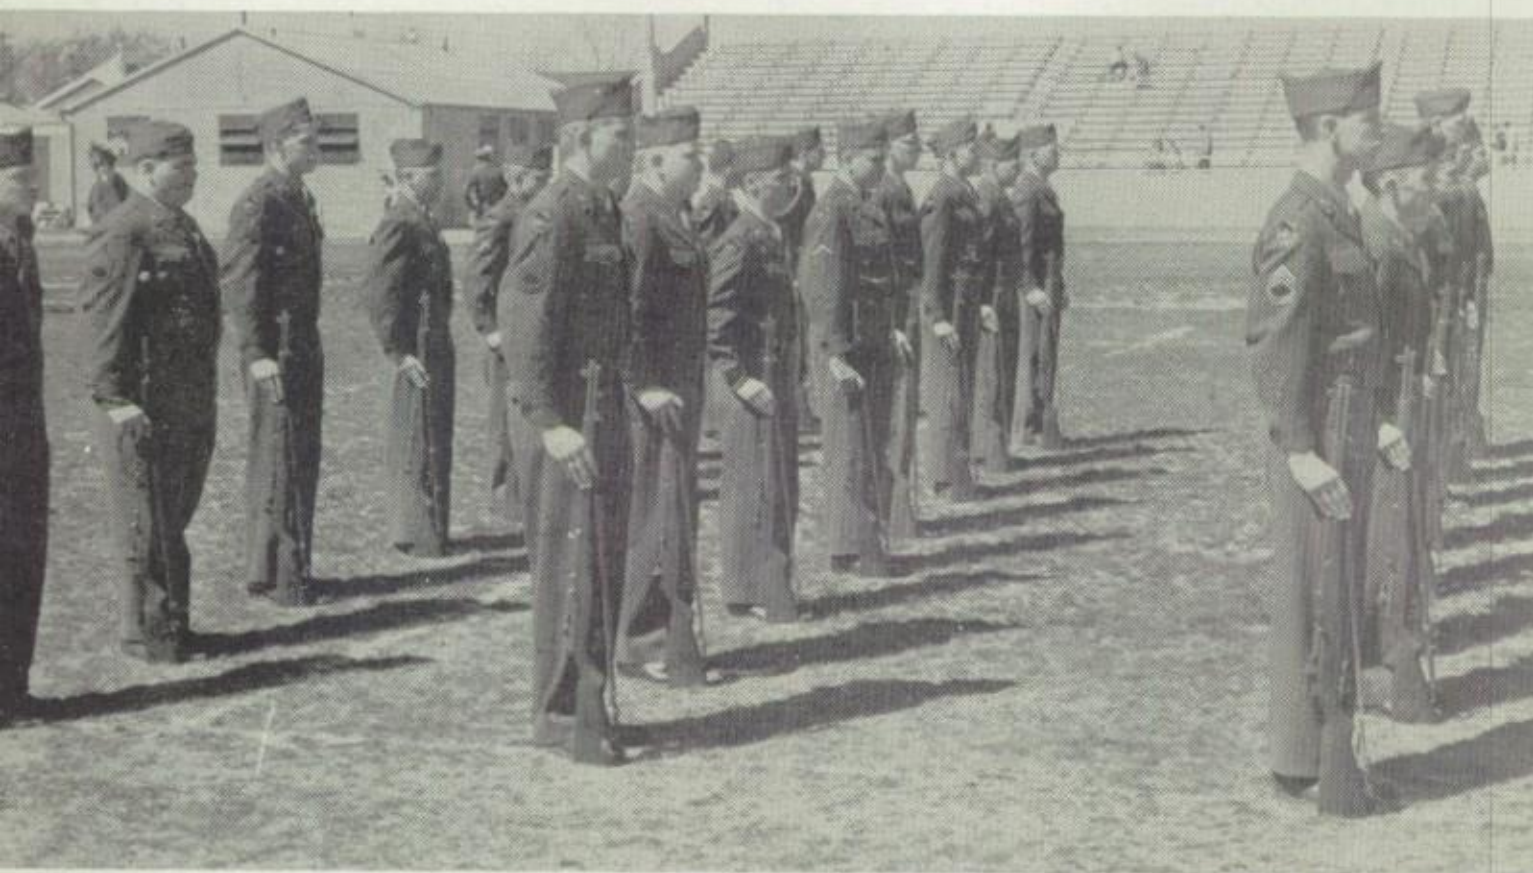

The McCann trophy is awarded each year to the member of National Forensic League who has made the most progress in speech work. As Jim Watters presented it to Roy Currence in the spring, we knew that Roy was well prepared for a successful senior year.

Rewards

Field

Field Day was a conclusion for outgoing seniors and a climax for all military boys

Lt. Col. Grant Clark and his trophies.

For diligence are high.

Day

after a year of marching, rifle practice, and calisthenics. The awards of Field Day set a goal for underclassmen to achieve like success the following year.

Sgt. Charles Prather received his award for being the best Junior rifleman.

Hi Gernert, in a final burst of speed, broke his brother Jim's record in the 440.

Mike Tipton, Boyd Dowler of Cheyenne, and Ray Mora with that last ounce came in third, second, and first in the 220 low hurdles.

Casper's Gernert and Mora and contestants from Cheyenne and Rock Springs put their all into the 220 yard dash.

Individual prowess leads to group success.

Track is the final event in athletics during the school year. Here competition is different from that of football and basketball in that each boy competes against his own best efforts. Every boy is on his own. Track competition ended a season, but it began one too, for the coaches worked with the underclassmen in the spring and discovered possibilities for football and its traditional September and October games with the Double "A" schools and with our rivals in South Dakota and Nebraska.

Boys practicing for track seem to be as much a sign of spring in Casper as robins on the lawns.

Hope was high for a successful season in football as Coach Cheeley checked out equipment to the following boys: Bob Thompson, Dave Noonan, Buck Buchanan, Jay Edmondson.

A pearly oyster shell served as a canopy

Patty Samuelson ducks by a row of rustling taffeta and fluffy organdy dresses and under the archway of the grand march, headed by Lee Roy Parsons and Marie Bissacca.

The juniors bade good-bye to the class of '55 and ushered in their own senior year with the Junior Prom, "Fathoms of Fantasy."

"Fathoms of Fantasy"

Mr. Pete Adams and his band.

An orange octopus brought with him an almost tangible "air" of salt water.

Caps and gowns, fluffy dresses, pressed suits, "butterflies"—those preparations and emotions marked moments of excitement when the seniors tried to stay in line before starting the march into the auditorium.

Seniors marched down the aisle in a final burst of nostalgia and glory to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

The moment when the past and the future seemed to intermingle as the Madrigal sang for Commencement.

Commencement

Not the end, but the beginning.

Finally we turned in our locker keys and book cards; we were officially out of school.

Boys' and Girls' States

To be chosen by the faculty to go to Girls' or to Boys' State is one of the culminating honors of the Junior year.

Standing with Senator Barrett's assistant Charles Munson and "Monty" Montgomery of Green River was Betsy Crowell, our representative to Girls' Nation.

“The heart of education is the love of the individual teacher for the individual pupil.”

MAY HAMILTON MEMORIAL

CHAPTER I DEDICATION

The worth of a high school cannot be measured by the beauty of its buildings and campus, by the money that is spent upon it, or even by the individual achievements of the most gifted of its students and faculty. The true worth of a high school is measured by its effect on the community of which it is a part—by the influence of all those who have ever given their time, their thoughts, and a good part of their hearts to it.

With this idea in mind, we chose to dedicate this MUSTANG of 1956 to the administration and faculty of Natrona County High School. We do not often express our gratitude for our teachers' service, nor even realize what long years of preparation, what selfless hours, and what love have been poured out to make our school what it is today. Sometimes memorials are written in our story for 1955-1956. Thank you everyone for making this school year possible and for making it successful.

Planning the activities that gave our story a successful plot were the members of the student council, sponsored by Mr. Grant Boyles. The council met regularly in the morning before school to govern the functions of the student body.

Adding new spice to our games were the "B-squad" cheerleaders, who were approved by the Council. Changes in the manner of electing the "Mustang Queen" were also discussed, passed, and initiated. Now the football team elects the queen from finalists chosen by the Senior boys, after all the boys have had a chance to submit petitions. Student Council members had complete charge of homecoming affairs—the bonfire, the pep assembly and coronation, the parade, and the well-attended mixer after Casper's victory over the Sheridan Broncos.

A rather unprecedented action going through the Council this year was the decision to deed "C" Hill to the students of Casper College, since it is on their campus. Now you may see the quit-claim papers and the dollar the college students paid us for the hill displayed in our trophy case.

Handling student government affairs and presiding over assemblies efficiently, the student council has produced a well organized and well conducted year.

Our student body officers have led the Council and the school during the past year. They are, Jerry Cronen, President; Betsy Crowell, Girls' Vice President; Hi Gernert, Boys' Vice President; Mary Jo Begley, Secretary; and Liz Robertson, Treasurer.

Girls' League Council

Girls' League in N.C.H.S. is composed of all the girls of the student body. They have elected this Council to govern them. Probably the biggest activity of the Council, during the year, outside of keeping girls' activities running smoothly, was the annual Football Ball. "This Side of Heaven" was chosen as the theme for 1955. Stars, clouds, and blue lights made up the decorations which were carefully planned by the Girls' Council. Silhouettes in the shape of angels, honoring the Senior Football boys, added just the right touch to the wall decorations. Betsy Crowell, Girls' Vice President, presented the football autographed by all the Senior boys to Jay Edmison, who was selected as recipient for the souvenir when his name was drawn from a football helmet.

All events undertaken by the council proved a big success with the aid of its Sponsor, Mrs. Barbara Scifers, Dean of Girls. Betsy was assisted by Vice President Edo Hanna, Secretary Genie Wood, and Treasurer Mary Sue Baker.

As money-making projects, council members sold N.C.H.S. stationery and sponsored a mixer after one of our basketball games.

Their closing activity always is the series of Orientation Teas; which are presented in an effort to help incoming Freshmen become acquainted with the school. The Teas were as successful as the rest of the girls' activities.

The Mustang Staff

Your MUSTANG staff worked hard to write this story of your year 1955-56. The plot was formulated during the spring of 1955 so that the happenings and illustrations of the months of April and May could form the prologue of our story, the getting ready to begin as it were. All during the summer the narration was taking form. The photographers preserved for you the flowers of the campus, the building framed in summery greenery, the school board as they worked out the budget and the plans for 1955-56. By September 1st, the first twenty pages were off for the acceptance of the printer. As the action of the year gained momentum so did the activities of the staff. During September, all the members signed up sponsors downtown. Three deadlines were met to keep abreast of the subjects which you were studying, the honors which you were winning, the victories noted by the accumulation of trophies in the cases in the lobby, the queens, the dances, the Christmas Story, the Follies, the Prom, the all-school play. We loved preserving the setting, the characters, the action, and the climaxes for this year of Natrona County High School, 1955-56. We hope that as you read it over and over you will realize how our administration and our faculty emphasize the principles of education—preparation for the future in citizenship, in skills, in health, in character, in worthy use of leisure, in vocations, and in happy home making.

SETTING

It was the age of the atom bomb; it was the year Russia began to smile. It was the year of record production; it was the year of the overcrowded schools. It was the year of the polio vaccine; it was the year our President was stricken. It was the year of the Geneva Peace Meetings; and the year of the increased draft. It was the year the College moved out of our building; and the year our student body outgrew the auditorium. It was a year of triumph and hope in some areas, and of defeat and near-despair in others—but whatever it was, it was ours. We have lived it, we have loved it, and we shall not forget it soon.

Study after school hours, in the quiet of a deserted classroom, is not uncommon.

CHAPTER II SETTING

Take the fellow above and multiply him by 1800; take the setting above and multiply it by six class periods and approximately three extra-curricular activities and you have the characters of our story in their various settings. Just as an author in writing a story tells his readers of the locale of his story, so we in writing our story of this year in this book present in picture and in explanation the places where it happened and the goals which we achieved in rounding out our work and pleasure. Portrayed in the next few pages are our algebra and English classes . . . our Latin and bookkeeping classes . . . our machine shop and journalism laboratories. We hope to bring back in memory the rotten egg smell of sulphur dioxide, the hum of lathes, the crowd at the pencil sharpener, the reading of Shakespeare, the click of the adding machine . . . all of the processes which we experienced and mastered as we achieved the Cardinal Principles of Education: worthy command of the three R's, of citizenship, of home membership, of vocations, of health, of good use of leisure time, and of ethical behavior. Turn the leaves of the story in this book and remember the teachers you knew, the activities you shared, and the lessons you learned.

CHARACTERS

America is alone: many together,
Many of one mouth, of one breath,
Dressed as one—and none brothers among them:
It is a strange thing to be an American.

They live together in small things. They eat
The same dish, their drink is the same and their proverbs.
Their youth is like. They are like in their ways of love . . .

This, this is our land, this is our people,
This is our country-earth, our blood, our kind.

—MacLEISH

With high school years behind them, two of the seventeen hundred characters in our story look into the future through a window of Natrona County High School.

CHAPTER III CHARACTERS

A story must have characters in it, for the plot is built around the people who move through it. In telling the story of your school year, then, it is natural that we should present to you the people, the characters that made it live. Besides teachers and advisors, there were the friends with whom you walked to school, the boy who sat in front of you in algebra, and the girl whose locker was across the hall from yours. There were the buddy you tried to duck in swimming, all the crowd who yelled themselves hoarse at games, and the special girl- or boy-friend who rated so much of your attention. You will find them all portrayed here, from the shortest little freshman to the most dignified of the seniors. Recall them as they were when you knew them during 1955 and 1956.

*"There is a mystic borderland that lies
Just past the limits of our workday world
And it is peopled with the friends we met
And loved a year, a month, a week, or day.
And parted from with aching heart . . ."*

CLASS OFFICERS—Kay Shuman, Secretary-Treasurer; Mary Grant, Vice President; Chuck Adams, President; Miss Hemry, Sponsor; Diane Chase, Representative.

Freshmen

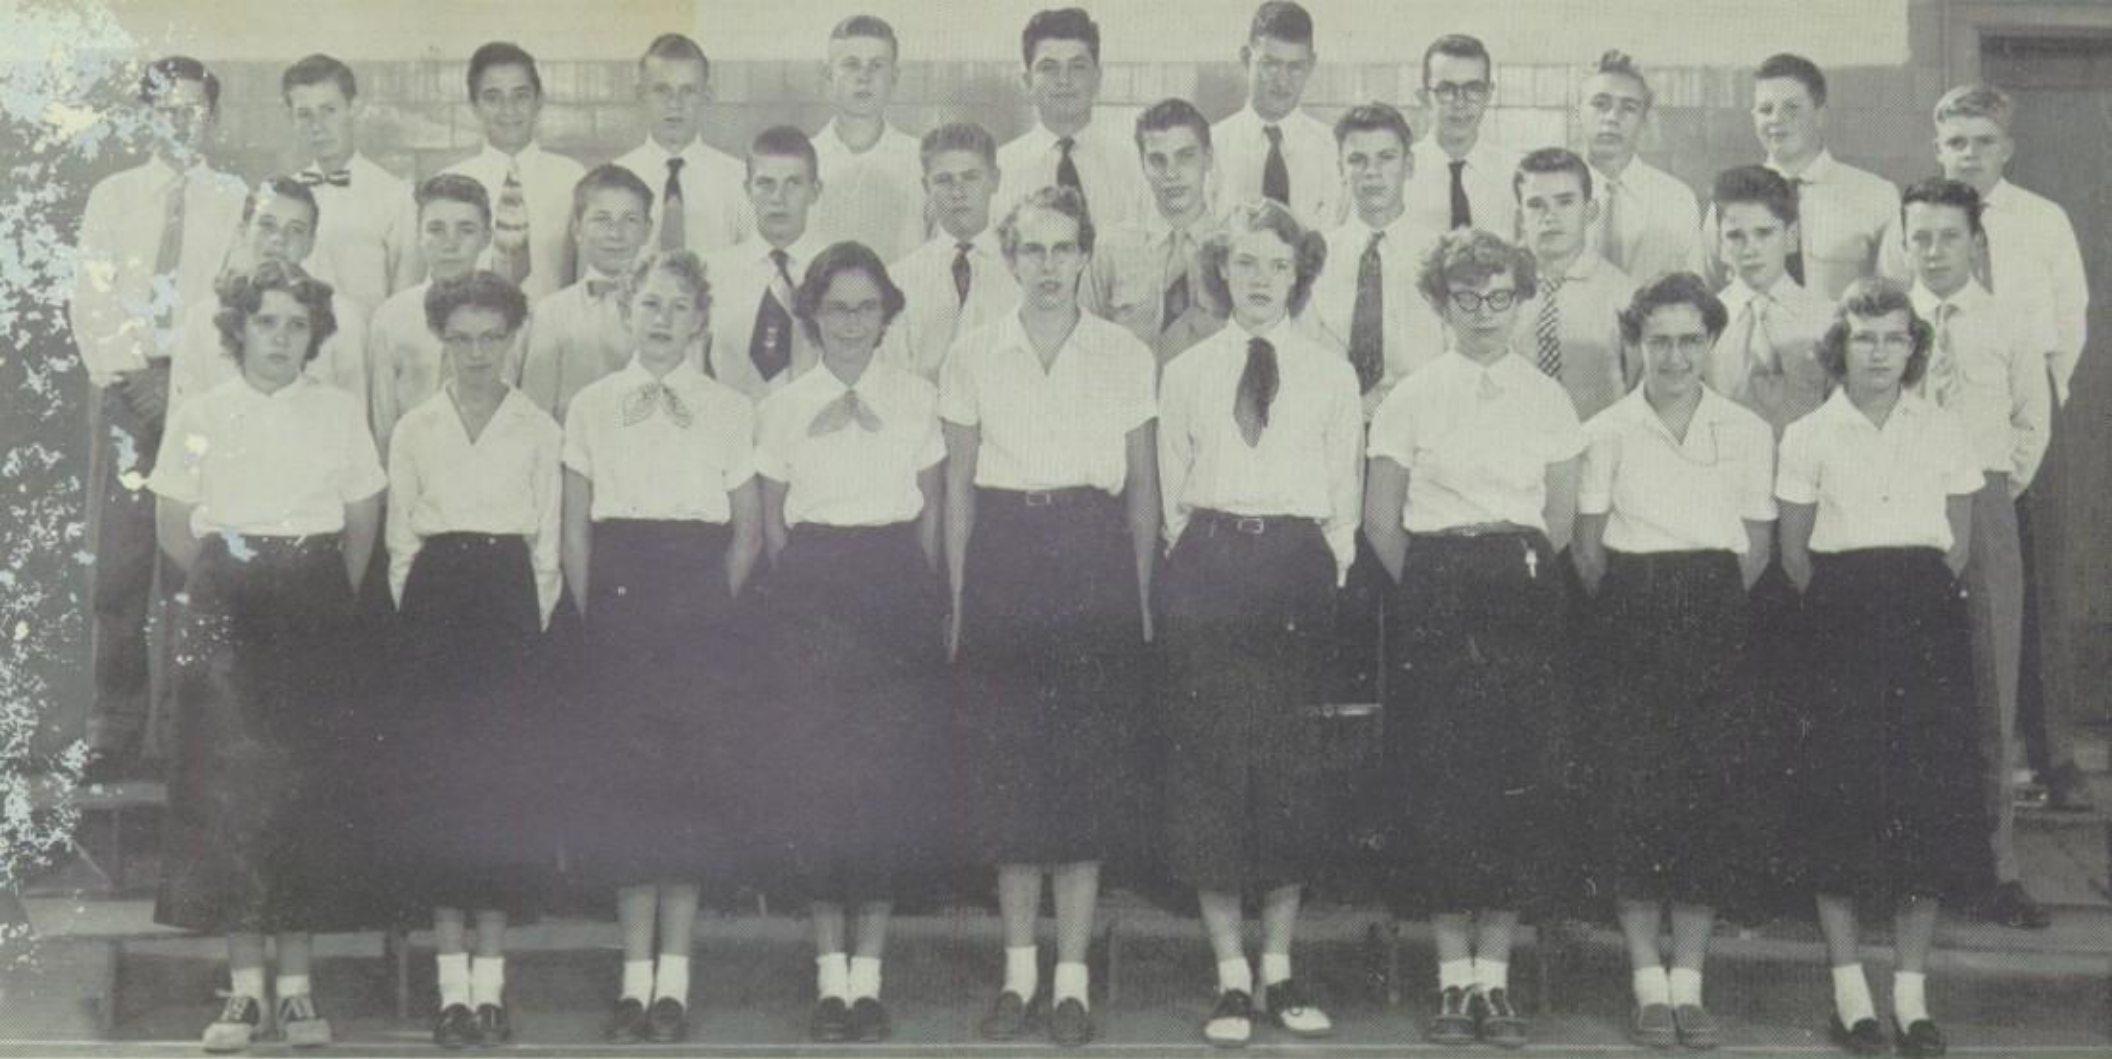

School jobs come a little harder now for the class of 1959. They were the "freshies" who beheld all customs with a confused look in their eyes. Latin, algebra, and Spanish presented many difficulties. The halls all looked alike and lockers were new and different. Freshman year presented a stepping stone for the fun to come.

In 1956 the Casper College moved into their new building and painted the "C" a vivid red, but the move meant for the class of 1959 more rooms and more lockers. Also they did not have to put on their coats and overshoes to make the crossing from the old building at lunch time. The first real highlight of this class was the "Barn Dance," the annual Co-Ed Ball. Dorothy Sorenson looked beautiful as the Queen and Mary Grant served as her princess. The box lunches of this Ball really marked the occasion as decidedly different from those of other years.

To direct class functions the following officers were elected: Chuck Adams, President; Mary Grant, Vice President; Kay Shuman, Secretary-Treasurer. Their representative to the Student Council was Diane Chase.

The class of '59 had some up-and-coming debaters, too, in Mike Hunter, Pat Ellis, Cile Pace, and Linda Bowman. Karen Brewer and Doug Smith impressed us as cheerleaders. As for athletes, the way things look now, old NCHS has the tournaments sewed up for quite a while to come. Sponsoring the Freshmen was Miss Kathleen Hemry.

Sophomores

Two down and two to go . . . these sophomores no longer have that "new" feeling; instead they look forward to being upperclassmen. They can hardly wait to give their Follies and decorate for their Prom. Nineteen fifty-five and fifty-six marked their last year of being scrubs. Next year they will be on the Varsity team!

During this most in-between of years, our "Sophs" had some tough classes, like biology and bookkeeping, so they were loaded down with heavy homework; but they managed to be as nonchalant as other sophomores before them. Outstanding earmarks of these second-year people were an air of disdain for freshmen, feelings of not-so-hushed excitement about their big Spring dance, and a general aura of self-confident helpfulness around school.

In this chapter of the life of the class of 1958, leaders were Harold Smith, President; Eddie Bland, Vice President; Catherine Gibbs, Secretary-Treasurer; and Jill Alsup, Representative to the Council. Mr. Brown and Mrs. Tarter helped out as Sponsors.

Among the many Sophomores who have impressed us are Marv Bullington on the "B" squad football team; Kent Sims, behind the rostrum; and Kitty Sue Burrridge with the baton. We are looking forward to seeing what this class does in the next two years.

Juniors

Highlighting the Junior year for almost everyone is the Follies. "Hero Revusical" was the theme for this year. The class of 1957 worked hard turning out all types of "He-men," ranging all the way from coon-skin-capped "Davy Crocket," played by Roger Cummings, to soot-streaked "Casey Jones" and a dashing "Sheik of Araby" played by Nickie Adamson and Tom Barnes. This musical was a panorama of times from the Charleston days to the present-day bop. General steering Chairman and co-ordinator of the Follies was efficient Sandy Dickensheets. Donna Swisher and Monte Henrie assisted as pianist and business manager. Miss Hill and Miss Feris were co-directors of this colorful production, which played to a packed house for two nights. Profits, of course, went toward the spring Junior Prom.

Leading the class this year were the officers, Buck Buchanan, President; Susan Pace, Vice President; Donna Swisher, Secretary-Treasurer; Representatives, Skip DeVault and Gary Leonard; and Sponsors, Mrs. Gibbs and Mr. Anderson.

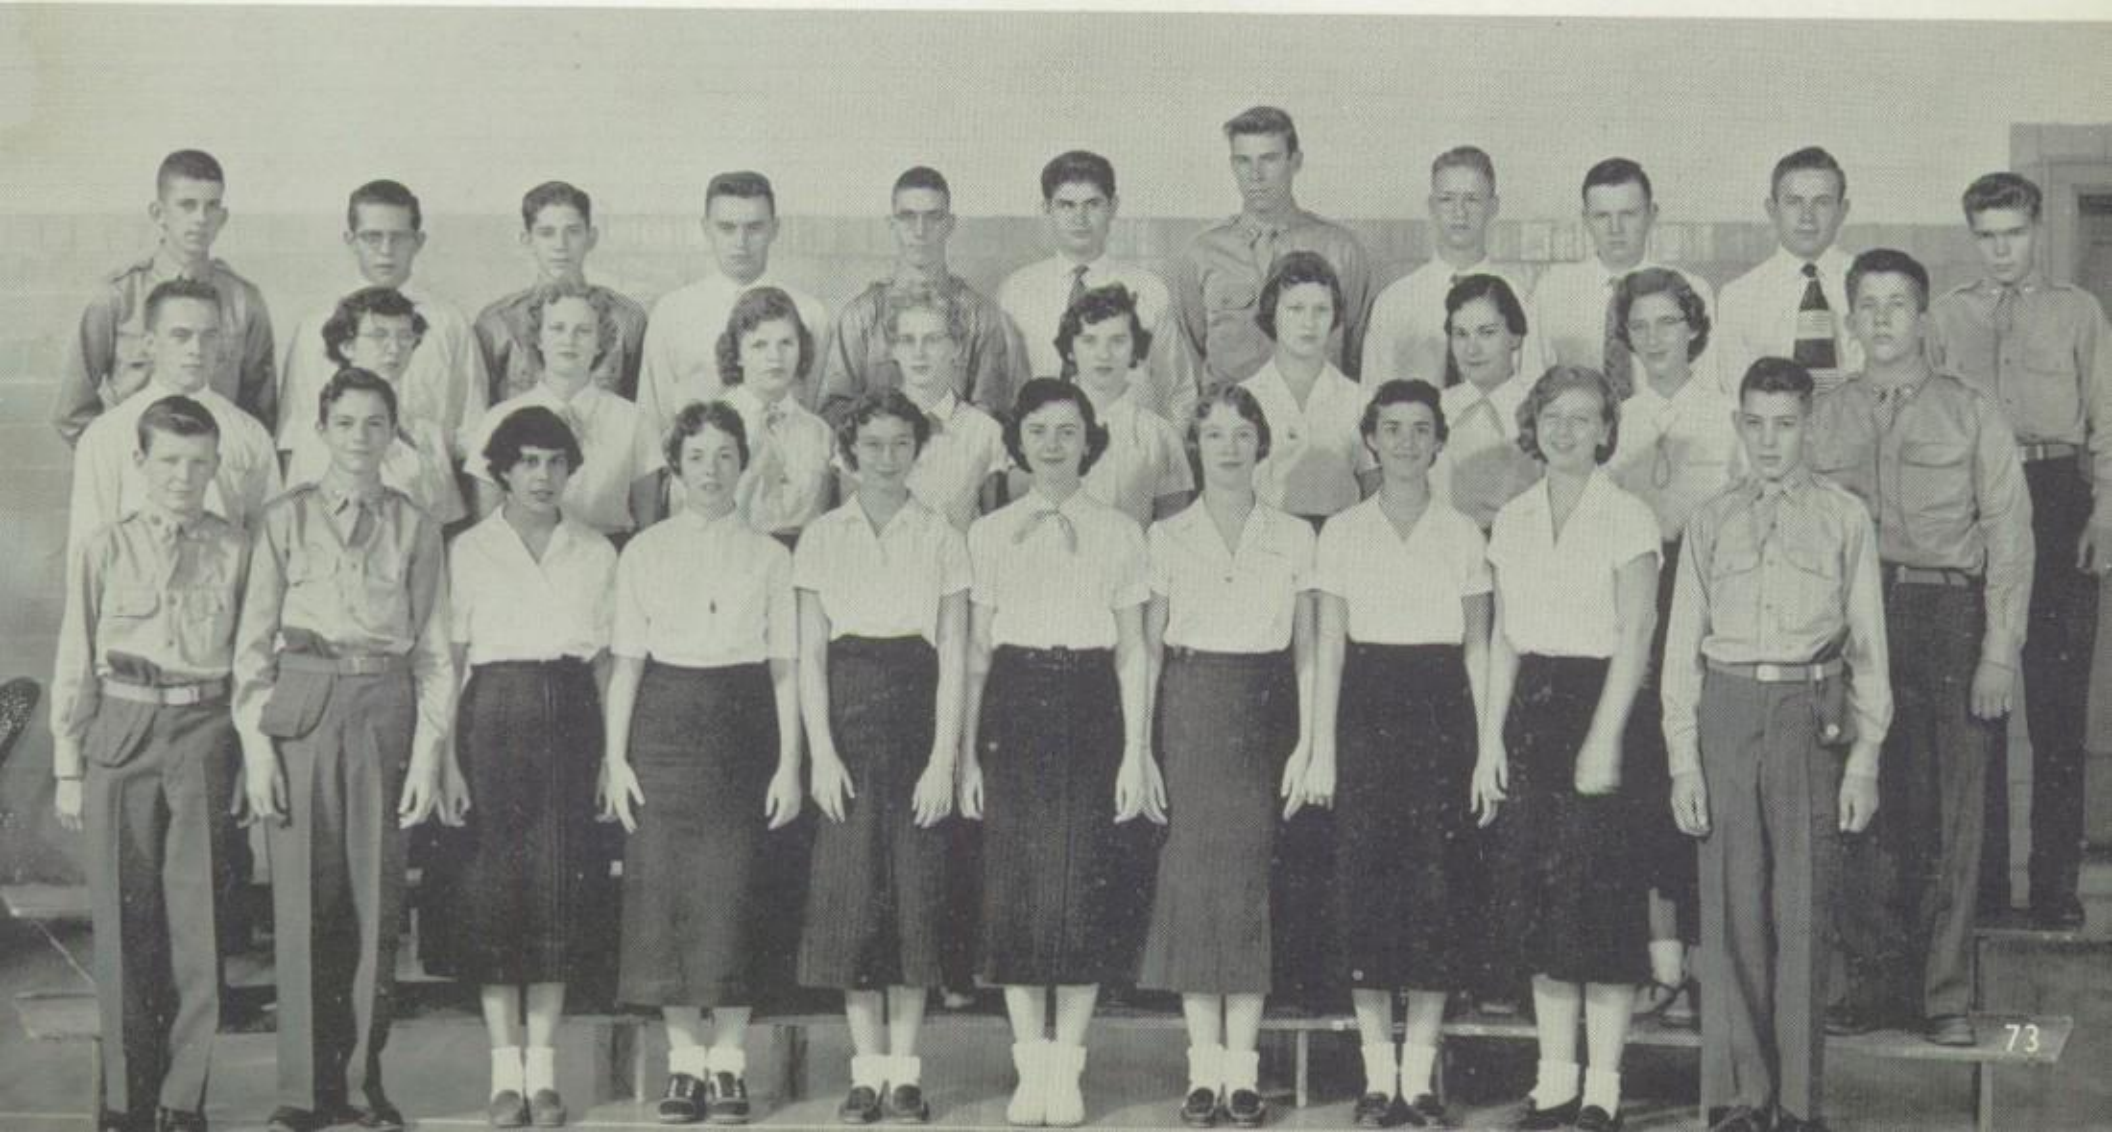

Choosing shiny new class rings was a treat for the Juniors, as rings always add that mark of distinction. The Juniors truly deserve a large chapter in our book for the work they did on their beautiful prom—the outstanding entertainment they gave us with the Follies . . . and for presenting us with such top students as Skip DeVault, Russ Donley, Herb Trujillo, Buck Buchanan, Bob Thompson, their athletes; Nickie Adamson, Jo Anne Blower, and Daphne Shaull, their debaters; and Mike Curry, Terry Williamson and Mickey Carlson, their musicians.

Another chapter is almost ended; and for the class of 1956, that division in the book of life which is called High School Days will soon be snapped shut. These have been years of training filled with the joy of being young.

Looking back, as Seniors always do, we can remember our Freshman year. We were glad to be in high school. Since there were so many of us, we broke down a few traditions. Our classes were run on split shifts; we had no co-ed ball or Senior-Freshman Assembly; and we had no class officers.

When we became Sophomores, we began to make up for lost time. We elected John Roussalis President, and spent our time behaving like typical Sophomores. Highlight of the year was our Soph Hop, one of the first of its kind.

As Juniors, after choosing Jerry Cronen to lead us, we settled down to hard work on our Follies. The result was "For Heaven's Sake," in which we presented everything from a crack drill squad just in from Pluto to the styles that will be popular in 2055. Our audience watched from Proton Plaza, night club of the future. The success of the Follies, everyone agreed, was due to the direction of Mr. Thorpe, Sandy Waatti, and Gordon Adams.

Next on the agenda was the Junior Prom, "Fathoms of Fantasy." Overhead was a ceiling of blue which formed the surface of an ocean complete with a ship sailing across it. Underneath, we entertained the Class of 1955 among whales, octopi, and fish nets, as the music drifted from a giant oyster shell.

Then we were Seniors! All this year, Ron Gardner, President; Ralph Sorenson, Vice President; Debbie Nichols, Secretary; and Joyce Lester, Treasurer, worked to make this the best year yet. And it was.

At first, we missed Miss Wilhelm, when she went back East to study, leaving Mr. Macomber to sponsor us alone.

The highpoint of the year always seems to be homecoming, but this year it was hard to realize that this bonfire, this pep-assembly, and this coronation were our last.

We ran the usual gamut of Senior activities, trying to prove ourselves a little superior to former Seniors. We ordered announcements, traded pictures, worried about the Iowa Content Exam, played spies to find out the theme of the Junior Prom, and were measured for caps and gowns. Finally there was commencement.

As we marched down the aisles, slowly and solemnly, we realized that this chapter in our Book of Life was finished. Henceforth, it would be memories; however, we began to write the book, for which these chapters prepared us.

ACTION

“Men cannot labor always. They must have intervals of relaxation. They cannot sleep through these intervals. What are they to do? Why, if they do not work or sleep, they must have recreation. And if you have not recreation from healthful sources, they will be very likely to take it from the poisoned fountains of intemperance.”

—DEWEY

“For the bow cannot possibly stand always bent, nor can human nature or human frailty subsist, without some lawful recreation.”

—CERVANTES

The "A" Squad Cheerleaders, who are Joyce Kerns, Liz Robertson, Nancy Johnson, Stewart McChesney, Sandra Waatti, and Don Burrige, capably lead the crowd at all the games, with their bubbling spirit.

CHAPTER IV ACTION

The "A" Squad Cheerleaders, with their overflowing school spirit and long hours of practice, are representative of a few of the activities carried on around our school. An author, as he writes his story, builds his plot carefully, adding the events that he thinks will make it most effective and leaving out others which might weaken his story. In telling the story of your year, however, we have chosen to record the action just as it happened, adding nothing and leaving out as little as we can. In this section are pictured for you the color and excitement of football season, and the thrill of basketball, swimming, and wrestling. Here is recorded for you military with its hours of marching practice, which sometimes seemed like drudgery; the hum and harmony of our band, orchestra, and choir; the varied projects and increasing memberships of the many clubs that are so much a part of our school. All these activities formed our plot. Come now, remember with us the excitement and the quiet times we knew as we lived these nine months.

*"When you are old and grey and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep.*

Football — 1955

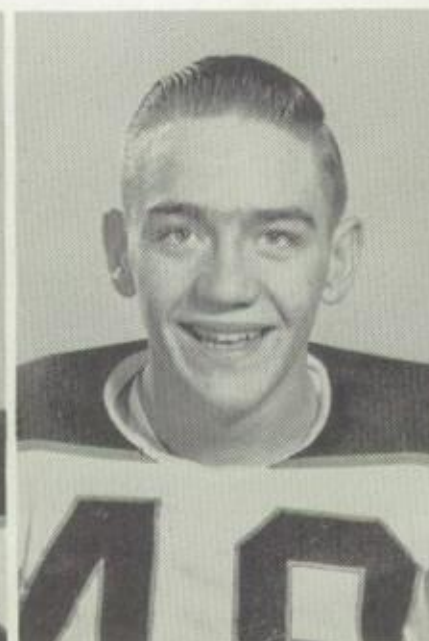

The story of any school year has its climaxes. Certainly none was greater than when our team defeated Sheridan in the final game of the 1955 season. That game was perhaps the highest point of action during their four years for several senior boys: among them were Mike Tipton, Ray Mora, Ken Sherwin, Ralph Sorenson, Jon Kidneigh, Jerry Cronen, John Goldtrap, Hi Gernert, Bill Davis, Frank Nichols, Ron Gardner, Dave Noonan, Chuck Boltz, Jerry Edwards, Roger Cook, Don Hum-berson, Mack Tipton, and Jay Edmison. For the 1955 team, action swayed back and forth; the boys lost four, won four, and tied one; but the season had its highlights for the guys; high-lights in the new suits (white and orange at home; black and orange on foreign fields; in tying Worland; and in defeating Rapid City by a large score. We all remember that we revived the street parade for the Sheridan game, a tradition which had died out for several years; we remember too that the weather was ideal so that we could wear our black and orange mums and munch on hotdogs on those peppy Wyoming nights. Our Mustangs kept making such famous comebacks in their play that the crowds were always huge and our cheering invariably showed the zest

Varsity

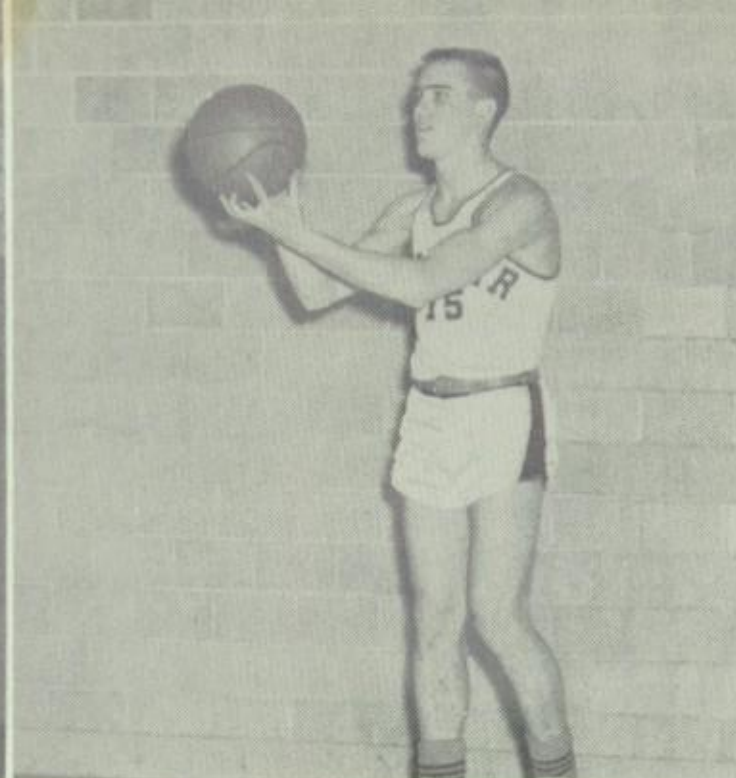

The Casper Mustangs, State Champions for 1955, began the new season with strong intentions to keep that cup. Playing the best teams in the state, our boys were scrapping all the way. First off, the team split a two-game set with Belle Fourche, South Dakota. Then, touring the Basin country, they made up for the upset Thermopolis handed them by blasting the Warriors of Worland back into the latter's tents.

The Rock Springs team came to Casper, but our boys won both games, and the Tigers went yowling home again. The following weekend, with our cheers still ringing in their ears, the Mustangs went down and galloped over the Laramie Plainsmen. On the next two nights, however, the old Cheyenne jinx was at work, and the boys lost both games to the Indians. Coming home put the boys back on the winning trail, though, and they beat the Plainsmen again. Marching up to Sheridan the team laid the Broncs low in a two-game set.

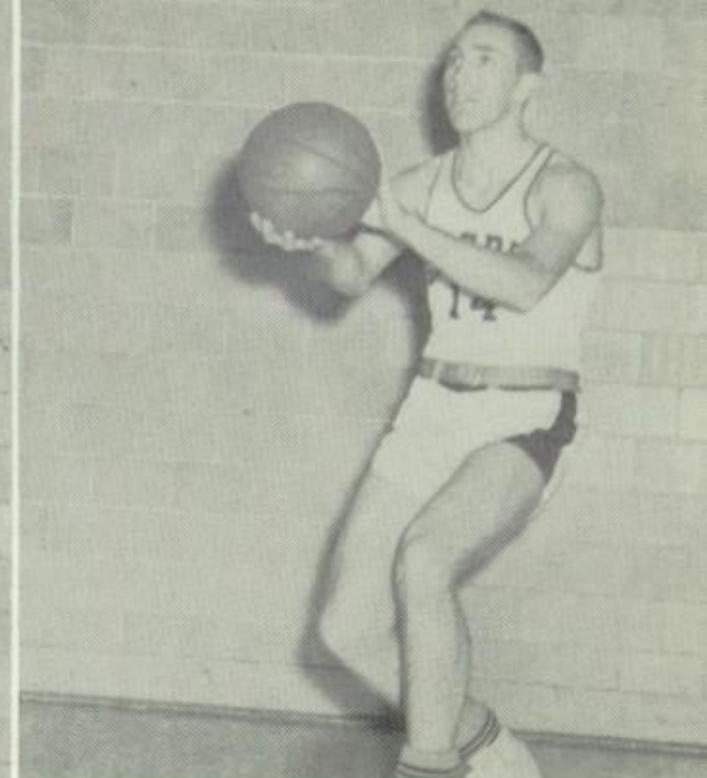

At Rock-Springs, last-second play by Mike Tipton gave the team its fourth straight win, but in the second game, the Tigers wreaked vengeance for the first defeat and we lost the game. The team came home to find our gym decorated with new pennants, one in the school colors of each of the Big Five teams. These banners were presented by the Student Council, and they brightened our gym almost as much as the Pep Club girls did in their orange sweaters. However, even in the new setting, Cheyenne was able to dump us after long hard fights on both nights. We split with Sheridan on our home floor. The regular season ended with two games against the Bobcats of Douglas.

Basketball

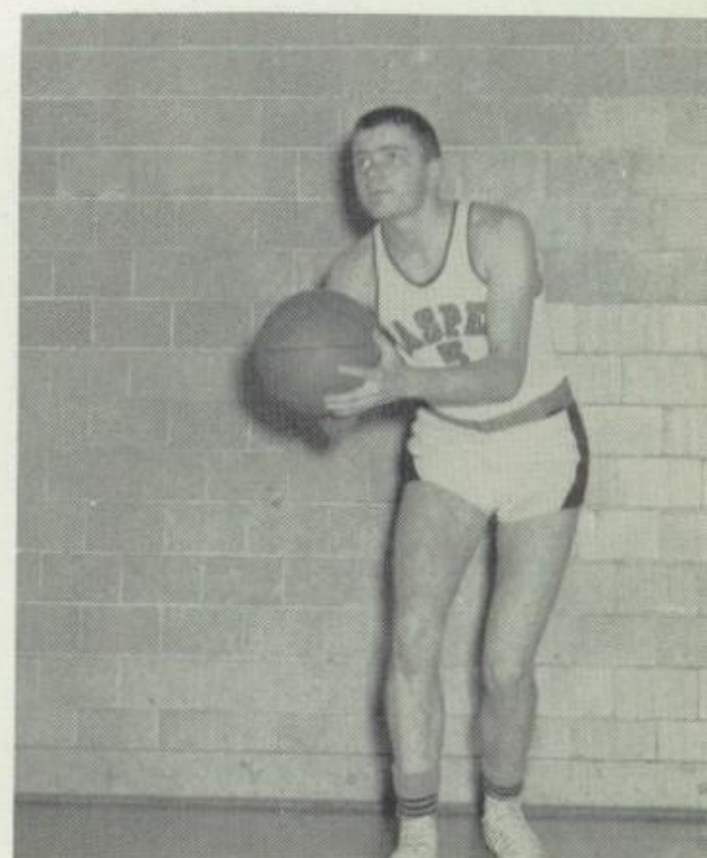

All in all the Mustangs had an off-and-on season, always leaving us with the feeling that they would come back after a defeat. The team grew sharper as the season went along, and finally reached its peak during the State Tournament. Mike Tipton, high scorer all along, really proved his worth. With the state games another exciting basketball season came to a close.

Marking its sixth season in Casper was 1955-56 wrestling. It ranked third as a varsity sport. Captained by Frank Nichols, the team had several exciting and eventful meets such as the one with Rock Springs. The team, coached by Mr. Geldien, boasted such outstanding wrestlers as Frank Nichols, Bill Davis, Ray Mora, and Ron Gardner.

"C" Club

Almost all good stories involve both boys and girls. Occasionally, however, one finds a tale dealing only with hardy men and adventurous boys, such as the story of TREASURE ISLAND. In the adventure of Natrona County High School, we have clubs and organizations for girls only, but we also have an all-masculine group, the club for the boys who have lettered in athletics, the "C" Club. Initiates to the organization in 1955-56 underwent a severe entry which consisted of a number of unpleasant events kept mum to the rest of the school, but the boys received due reward when they were presented with the "C" Club medal. Soon after the initiation officers were installed. Hi Gernert was elected President; Bill Davis, Secretary-Treasurer; and Ray Mora, Vice President. After this organization, the club went on to perform many activities. First, there was the "C" Club vs. Faculty basketball game; there were the "C" Club fights in March; and finally, there was the spring "C" Club Banquet, the climax of the year for the boys. After filling themselves full of fried chicken, the boys presented their dates with trophies, signifying the sports in which they lettered. Mr. Cheeley and Mr. Erickson, club sponsors, presented their dates with trophies, signifying the sports in which they lettered. Mr. Cheeley and Mr. Erickson, club sponsors, presented "C" blankets to each graduating senior who had earned six or more varsity letters. The "C" Club played a large roll in encouraging the ideals of sportsmanship and good conduct.

"Music has charms to

Adding animation and vivacity to all school football and basketball games was the Natrona County High School band. We warmed our numb fingers and toes by keeping time with the band's music during the Sheridan game when scuffs of snow covered the playing field. The band performed new and unusual half-time shows, such as the one featuring a current rave, doodles. The swing band had a busy year playing for mixers after the games and playing for a junior prom at Riverton. Ostentatious to the band members was the district tournament at Riverton featuring solos and the orchestra.

GRACE RODRIGUEZ

Madrigal

One of the chief sources of pride around Casper High School is our hundred-voice Madrigal Choir. Composed of the best voices of each of the four classes, and directed by Mrs. Grace Jacobson, it has won many honors in Wyoming and in the entire region.

As always, the choir presented the beautiful Christmas pageant, in co-operation with the English and art departments. With tableaux and music, the age-old story of the birth of Christ was presented. As we watched our friends move down the aisle with lighted candles and step into their places, we realized again how much preparation must be done to present a service like this one. One of the many high spots on the program of anthems and carols was the solo of Grace Rodriguez, a newcomer to Casper, whose picture is inset.

The music for the pageant was the main project of the choir for the first semester. During the second semester, Mrs. Jacobson and the choir spent most of their efforts on preparing for the spring music festival in Riverton. They also presented a concert before the student body, sang for various service clubs, and added their music to the commencement exercises.

Elected as this year's President was John Roussalis, while Irene Williamson served as Vice President, Dick Evans and Sharon Wilson were Secretaries, and Clarence Morley was Treasurer.

"O Come All Ye Faithful, Joyful and Triumphant"

Christmas in

The rustle of angels' wings, the smell of wet paint on the scenery, the click of all the lights being operated, the shimmer of satin, the glitter of a king's gift, the shouted commands of a harried director, the throb of a choir warming up, the notes of a piano and organ drifting through the hall like incense, the dusty smell of straw in a little wooden manger—all these told us that our school was preparing the Christmas Pageant. Once again, as in years past, everyone helped to present the simple, moving story of the birth of a little Baby in Bethlehem. And over all the spirit of Christmas reigned.

Vaqueros

Cowboy boots and ten-gallon Stetsons were seen more and more on the boys and girls of N.C.H.S. after Vaqueros was founded. Vaqueros, the Spanish name for cowboy, was the rodeo club of our high school. Meeting the first and third Thursdays of each month, in Mr. Anderson's room, our rodeo fans discussed attending other high school rodeos in the state, and planned for the competition at district rodeos. Under the leadership of Del Wright, president, the group carried out these plans, and held its own Western dance. Judy Clark, Secretary, and Kay France, Treasurer, set up membership requirements as follows: to be good citizenship and to receive a recommendation from a teacher. They expect to be setting their own traditions this year, and hope to become affiliated with the National High School Rodeo Association in future years.

Future Professionals

With the increase of our population, our story broadens to take in new groups and new settings. Future Professionals was probably the first club of its kind to appear in the nation. Just as National Thespians had its birth in N.C.H.S., so did the Future Professionals. The idea was to have a club for Juniors and for Seniors who were interested in vocations—professional vocations—such as medicine, engineering, law; that is, other professions that were not sponsored by another club. The thought first struck Frank Nichols, Club President, and John Roussalis, Representative. They presented their plans to Mr. Joseph, and under his direction the club was born. Forty members met on the first and third Mondays of each month to further a members' interest in, and his knowledge of the profession of his choice. Another purpose was to help those who were uncertain about vocations to decide their future. Secretary Jerry Youmans was busy writing down the new club constitution; Treasurer Sandy Jones began a ledger for handling the club funds; and Vice President Charles Prather assisted President Frank in his duties. The club being new and forming late in the year, lacked the usual number of yearly activities, but they did have a pot-luck supper. Also they invited the business men from Casper offices to speak at their meetings. The ambition of the club was to spread the organization throughout Wyoming and to gain national recognition.

Future Nurses

Love of service, good character, and genuine interest in nursing as a career are the qualifications for membership in Future Nurses of America. The President of the club, Joan Brady, told us that the chief purpose of the club is to teach the members all they can learn about nursing. Mrs. McCallum, Club Sponsor, added that the club also aims to promote lasting friendship.

Their love of service was shown by the Freshman group as they made favors for the children's Christmas trays at the hospital. The girls showed genuine interest in people by preparing a special Christmas basket for a needy family.

The club meets the second Monday of each month at 7:30, when Secretary Liz Fox calls roll, and Vice President Mary Olga Christensen assists Joan.

This year, F.N.A. sponsored a mixer after the football game October 28. Dorothy Carlson, Club Treasurer, relates these as her busiest times.

The senior club members made a trip to Cheyenne in the spring, where they visited the hospital at Warren Air Force Base and the state public health department. All the club members had the opportunity to make a conducted tour through Natrona County Memorial Hospital.

So ended a busy year.

Future Teachers

Increasing interest in and knowledge of the teaching profession were the goals of the Future Teachers of America Club. Edo Hanna held the gavel as president and along with the rest of the club members made plans to teach the future school children of America. Approximately 106 club members met on the second Wednesday of each month in the Girls' League room to discuss their interest in the teaching profession. To join F.T.A. one had to be a sophomore, a junior, or a senior with an average above a III. Important during 1955-56 was the Casper College Visitation Day, on which occasion the students taking education courses in the college entertained the freshman Future Teachers of America. Plans for 1957 included extending membership in the F.T.A. to include the freshman group, a separate organization during 1955-56.

In the fall members of the club spent the annual Visitation Day among the grade schools of Casper. They were treated to a delicious luncheon. In the spring the seniors were again invited to teach school for a day. The Wyoming F.T.A. met in Laramie and officers viewed the education department of the University of Wyoming. The officers who helped Edo to plan a successful and enriching club year, to arrange for a Christmas dance and for a spring dance were the following people: Judy Rogers, Vice President; Nancy Hardison, Secretary; and Sandra Waatti, Treasurer. The sponsors were Mr. Sullins and Mrs. Scifers.

Outside reading supplements our reading in the classics; the Future Teachers was one extra-curricular group which added much to vocational guidance in our high school.

Future Secretaries

Formed last spring under the direction of Miss Alberta Smith and Mrs. Yates was the Future Secretaries of America. A rapidly growing club, it now has 59 members on record. The club was composed for the purpose of teaching the girls what to expect and what they will encounter when they enter the thriving business world of today. The club shows the girls how to meet strong competition and overcome secretarial faults. Meeting the first Monday of each month, the club is presided over by Liz Robertson, President; with the help of Sharron Wilson, Vice President; Irene Williamson, Recording Secretary; Eleanor Meyer, Corresponding Secretary; and Jean Dillon, Treasurer. Junior and senior girls taking typing and shorthand may qualify for membership.

Important this year were the annual Christmas party and several field trips to visit various business firms. The club also had guest speakers from offices downtown in Casper to deliver talks at the club meetings.

Pep Club

Marching six rows deep in neat orange sweaters with black emblems and waving colorful crepe paper shakers was our pep club as they looked in the homecoming parade. In the center of the members was Debbie Nichols, the lively president of pep club, and on both sides of her, holding up a banner bearing "Beat Sheridan," were Vice President, Nancy Hartwell; Secretary, Judy Rogers; and Treasurer, Whitney Stevens.

Pep boosters this year, and profitable ones at that, were the lollipop and pom-pom sales. The club did a rip-roaring job of promoting school spirit this year.

They formed a shield of orange and black as they sat in their reserved seats at the games and they gave us action in their pep assemblies.

In the fall the club held a pot luck dinner for the initiation of their new girls. The members were selected by their scores on a test made out and given by the officers of the club. The pep club with the help of the sponsors, Mrs. Walters and Miss Jackson, followed the Mustangs with cheers and spirit. The ambition of the club was to charter a bus to at least one game a year. They also hope to make their successful projects of this year traditions in N.C.H.S.

History's heroes were all there on the nights of November 9 and 10. "Hero Revusical," presented by the class of 1957, mingled a delightful combination of the past and present, as it flashed scenes from the days when bearskins were cheap, the days when Johnny came marching home, the days of Valentino and the birth of Jazz, and these days when football players are the heroes. The varied program included the story of Casey Jones, as sung by Nickie Adamson and a roller skating exhibition (one of the first ever held in N.C.H.S.) by the waitresses of Hero's Haven.

Constantly working behind the scenes were Sandy Dickensheets, Student Director; Miss Feris and Miss Hill, Sponsors; and Donna Swisher and Monte Henrie, Student Accompanists. As always the Follies played to a large crowd, and left a big challenge to the Class of 1958.

Funniest hero of all the railroads—Casey Jones cleverly depicted by Nicky Adamson.

A couple of high-stepping chorus girls take time from "Tea for Two" to pose for our photographer. The girls are Pat Beall and Katherine King.

Danis Cox pantomimed the lively "I Don't Care" by Ethel Merman.

Newcomers' Club

Just as every story has its moments of relief from the more prosy passages, just so has Natrona County High School a group which furnishes fun, recreation, and comfort to the old and new alike. Every week new students are enrolled in Natrona County High School; therefore the Newcomers' Club had a constant job of welcoming new students and helping them adjust to their new environment. The club in 1955-56 had a maximum of 150 members, all of whom had moved to Casper during the year. Sue Davis, President, directed the activities with the help of their active and interested Sponsor, Miss Kathleen Hemry. The other officers lending Sue a hand were as follows: Vice President, Don Woods; Reporter, Ann Lisa Mills; Treasurer, Linda Lay; and Business Manager, Gary Taylor.

Truly this was the group which had most of the fun as their activities will show. They purchased a new Hi-Fi record player and three new electric fountains to add to the six they bought last year. The members sold Christmas corsages and mistletoe as a special project. As usual they conducted the concessions at the games, sharing their proceeds with everyone as their purchases demonstrated.

Another venture was the forming of a Bop Club with Randy Harrison as its President.

A summary of parties tells of the fun the Newcomers had during the school year. They had a party every month, a get-acquainted picnic, a Halloween costume ball, Christmas and Valentine dances, a swim party, and a roller skating party.

The club room furnished in Western furniture provided a meeting place for community groups.

Newcomers enjoy all the festivities of the Holiday season such as dancing, eating, and conversing at their annual Christmas party.

Only two chairs left and there is a mad scramble to be the last one seated in musical chairs. The lively game was played by the newcomers at their costume Halloween party.

Newcomers After Four Activities

The Newcomers club-room is the scene of activity continually with interests ranging from setting up and running the school store, to catching a quick program on television.

Latin Club

We turn over a page in our book and see the heading of "Latin Club." Our glance rises to the thirty-seven members and in the middle of the picture we spot Susan Pace, Club President. Seated beside her are the other officers elected early in the fall by the entire club membership: Betsy Crowell, Vice President; Judy Strand, Secretary; and G. D. Pittman, Treasurer. Third year Latin students are automatically members, but a stiff competitive examination is given to second-year students desiring to join.

Treasury funds expanded to the Club's advantage when they had charge of the concessions at the Worland football game and at the mixer for the Bell Fouche basketball game. Two final projects were the spring picnic at which the club members entertained themselves on the outdoor flavor of roasted hog dogs and the usual picnic foods. The club also honored the school with a small gift at the end of the school year.

Nancy Hufsmith relates to the Latin Club amusing facts concerning the prominent Roman features of Caesar.

Radio Guild

No story is complete without music and conversation. The Radio Guild furnished both. Helping to spin the platters every Thursday afternoon on Melody Time at KSPR was a member of the Radio Guild which group was sponsored by Mr. Macomber. The climax of the year for the club members came on a Saturday in May when they took over the job of announcing for Station KSPR. John Roussalis, President, led the club, but in this task he was assisted by other officers—Gerry Cotter, Donna Swisher, and Patsy Huey. This was a club of practical education for the Junior and Senior members who took turns each morning giving the announcements over the public address system. The Guild met every Tuesday at 3:30 in room 209 where they made plans for giving those who were interested in radio work some actual experience. A plan was formed to organize panel discussions for regular broadcast over a local station.

El Circulo Espanol

Blindfolded, she swung crazily with the stick, while the rest of the crowd ducked and shouted with laughter. Finally she hit what she was aiming for, a great paper-mache pinata that hung from the middle of the ceiling. As the pinata broke, everyone scrambled for the candy and gifts it held. Later they all joined in singing the age-old Spanish Christmas carols, and played the games that go with that season.

All this happens every year here at N.C.H.S. as the Spanish Club holds its Christmas party. President Liz Robertson and Sponsor Mr. Wells agree that, while preparations for the party took much time, still it and the Spring banquet, at which Spanish food was served, were the highlights of the year.

Members of El Circulo Espanol met the third Wednesday of each month at each other's homes, and spent their meetings learning more of the Spanish language and customs.

Sheila Mahoney, Secretary; Sandra Goodman, Vice President, and Joan Layman, Treasurer, outlined the membership requirements to be as follows: any first year Spanish student with a "1" average, any second-year student with a "2" average, or any third-year student may join the club. The forty "future Spaniards" who were enrolled this year assured us that this is indeed an active and interesting group.

English Club

Warm weather came to greet us, and so did the English club with multi-colored yard punch. Members of the club handed over the proceeds from the weekly "Yard Punch Today" to their active Sponsor, Miss Ethel Lindsey. Energetically leading the club functions the third Thursday of each month was President, Jon Brady, with help from Vice President, Louis Roussalis; Secretary, Joan Brady; and Treasurer, Linda Canfield. Membership of the club was limited to twenty-five or the upper third of the students who take the English Club entrance examination.

English Club members represented the "Legend of Sleepy Hollow" in the Homecoming parade. Some of the other activities of this busy club were its annual Christmas party and the presentation of a gift to the needy. As summer vacation approached they had their yearly "Spring Festival," and they presented the school with a glass dish for the Girls' League Room. Cultivating literary interests and worthwhile friendships the English Club has been a longstanding member of Natrona County High School.

Gusher Staff

Telling their story in serial form, continued in each issue of the newspaper, the editors of the Gusher and their staff told their own story of each few weeks. Carol King, Editor-in-Chief, and Miss Ruth Pettigrew, Sponsor, initiated a bigger and better paper than ever before. Sid Wallingford took the job of photographer, marking the first time in many years that the Gusher has taken their own pictures. We shall never forget those feature editions: the bright green and fuchsia Christmas paper with its picture features. Then there was the "Slusher" appearing in April. Many of the staff members decided on Journalism as their career when they took a grand tour of the Casper Tribune Herald. Early in the fall four of the members journeyed to Laramie to attend the Wyoming High School Press Association. Ruth Eaton was one. While she was there she won second place in a news writing contest.

Dramatizing the athletics this year was Sports Editor Ken O'Connell. G. D. Pittman, Club Editor, was kept occupied writing club activities and encouraging new groups. Handling the business end of the work were the business managers, Ruth Eaton and Joan Dorsett.

The Gusher boasted (and well they might too) of their mention in the National Quill and Scroll magazine and twice of their winning of the purple ribbon for the outstanding high school paper in Wyoming. The staff of 1956 hoped that one of these honors might be theirs to remember.

Big Sisters

Stories, even a biography such as ours, contain much narration. Before, after, and during the month of October the following was the type of conversation being overhead:

"What can I wear that will be good for square dancing? What can I put into my box to eat? How can I decorate my box? Where shall we go after the Co-ed Ball?"

Irene Williamson, President of Big Sisters, knew the answers to the questions as she was leading the senior girls in the planning of the annual Senior-Freshman dance. The Big Sisters did an excellent job of acquainting the incoming Freshman girls with our high school. Edo Hanna, Vice President, and Judy Johnson, were busy around Thanksgiving time and the Christmas season, filling baskets of food for the needy.

Miss Yvonne Rippon and Mrs. Carol Schmelzel, Club Sponsors, gave their guidance to make this year of 1955-56 a successful one for the Senior girls.

Joyful tears were shed at the Co-Ed Ball by Dorthy Sorenson, who reigned as queen; Molly Peak was princess. The girls were escorted by Sandi Waatii and Luanne Laney.

Top row: Rita Fulton, Chairman of Christmas food basket, Charlotte Shulz, Chairman of Clean-up Committee, Jackie Walters, Janet Hussion, Mary Olga Christensen, Carolyn Joines, Sandra Waatti, Chairman of Entertainment Committee. CLIMAX

“The desire of excellence is the necessary attribute of those who excel. We work little for a thing unless we wish for it. But we cannot of ourselves estimate the degree of our success in what we strive for; that task is left to others. With the desire for excellence comes therefore, the desire for approbation. And this distinguishes intellectual excellence from moral excellence; for the latter has no necessity of human tribunal; it is more inclined to shrink from the public than to invite the public to be its judge.”

CHAPTER V CLIMAX

There are high points in every story and in every life. Those moments of triumph come, bringing the rewards and excitement for which we have worked. In writing your story, we have chosen to call these achievements the climax of the year. Remember the day that you made your membership points in Forensic League and became a full-fledged debater, or journalist or thespian? In this section are shown for you the faces of those who are members of our four national organizations. Here are those who distinguished themselves in preparing for college, and those who, for a day, knew the thrill of teaching little children. To those of you who are Seniors, we say remember that those achievements should be only the beginning of many more triumphs. To the underclassmen, we say work toward a goal, either these goals or others in other fields. The man who dreams and then makes his dreams come true is the real conqueror. As Braley says:

*"Might of the roaring boiler,
Force of the engines throat,
Strength of the sweating toiler,
Greatly in these we trust.
But back of them stands the schemer,
The thinker who drives things through;
Back of the job—the dreamer,
Who's making the dream come true."*

National Forensic League

The snow kept coming down. Finally the two boys turned to Miss Feris and said, "Do you have any hope of our going?" This scene could be a commentary on any two of four stormy weekends last winter when our debaters and speakers were preparing to go to a speech tournament up into South Dakota or down into Colorado. However, snow and bad roads cancelled only two trips this season; and our teams certainly made up for these two disappointments at other tournaments.

Humorous readers took first place at Colorado A and M. Debate teams came back from Spearfish and from Colorado tournaments many times undefeated. At the Rocky Mountain Speech Meet for high schools, Jo Anne Blower and Kent Sims took first place in debate over teams from Wyoming, Colorado, Oklahoma, and Nebraska. At a student congress in Cheyenne, Clarence Morley was voted the Outstanding Senator, Debbie Nichols was nominated to go to the National Student Congress, and Shirley Tucker received the silver medal in the House for a superior representative. The group brought back a cup from Spearfish, as Nickie Adamson won first in oratory, Betsy Crowell, first in extemp speaking, and the debate teams composed of Judy Ellen Best, Carol Dugan, Jo Anne Blower, and Judy Rogers won the "B" division debate.

Nickie Adamson again won first in the Voice of Democracy in Casper, placing second in the state.

President, Roy Currence, estimated the club members traveled a total of 2,000 miles during 1955-56. As always the emphasis was upon maximum participation. Miss Frances Feris was the traveling-coaching Sponsor and Sandy Dickensheets was the Secretary.

National Honor Society

Election to National Honor Society is perhaps the greatest climax of our years of study. Brains plus initiative and a high grade average are the common requirements to become a member of this coveted society. This is the only organization in high school which bases membership on scholastic standing alone. This year the upper ten per cent of the senior class were admitted and the upper five per cent of the junior class. The lowest average for seniors was 1.75, which was a little higher than last year's 1.79. Miss Dollie Hagan, Club Sponsor, stood by at all meetings as Roy Currence, President, directed them. G. D. Pittman, Vice President, and Shirley, Secretary-Treasurer, helped Roy welcome the twenty-seven new members during the second semester. Each year, nine members are elected by the group to take the National Honor Society scholarship tests. Those tested in 1955 were as follows: Shirley Tucker, Roy Currence, Debbie Nichols, Jon Brady, Joan Brady, Don Watson, Judy Johnson, Irene Williamson, and Renata Ury.

Emphasis was upon action in this part of our story. Our hero hurried after school to room 151 and stayed until six o'clock. He went home for a hurried supper, rushed back to the auditorium, and practised with Mr. Thorpe until nine. Of course, all this activity happened during certain months of the '55-'56 school year, but those were busy and exciting months for our energetic little man. Who was he? One of the hundred members of Troupe Number 1, National Thespians. Through those long hours, the club members were planning entertainment for the Pancake Festival; they were rehearsing one-act plays; or they were hammering and painting to complete needed props and scenery. In the center of all this action was Mr. Thorpe, Club Sponsor.

Proceeds from a bake sale held at the Casper Commissary were handled by Treasurer, Donna Swisher. John Roussalis, President, conducted a meeting every Monday at 3:20. John was assisted by Vice President, Charles Prather. Jane Ridgeway, Secretary, recorded the qualifications for membership as being interested in dramatics and the earning of a certain number of Thespian points, awarded for taking part in the presentation of a play or on the stage crew end of such a production.

National Quill and Scroll

Those who edited our story and those who furnished us with a serial of events about life in N.C.H.S. were certainly the members of National Quill and Scroll. The goal of all students on the GUSHER staff or on the MUSTANG staff is to become a member of this national chapter. Any hard worker on the yearbook or on the paper is eligible if he is recommended by the sponsors of the publications and has a II average. Miss Ruth Pettigrew, Sponsor of the organization, relates to us the purpose of the club as being to further interest and development in the journalistic fields and to encourage outstanding achievement on the part of the individual members. Officers elected at the second semester for 1956 were Ken O'Connell, President; Joyce Kerns, Secretary; and Nancy Suther, Treasurer; and Carol King, Vice President.

In the spring honors were awarded to the outstanding stories and features sections of the GUSHER. This year was no exception for the GUSHER as its staff members walked away with prizes, such as the one given to Ruth Eaton for her news story written at the University during Journalism Week. The MUSTANG received its honors in the fall at the Journalism conference in Laramie. At that convention the yearbook won the award as the best all-round state annual, an honor long wished for.

Winners or . . .

Any school year is filled with work followed by high points of achievement. One of the purposes of education is to provide leaders. Leadership grows by serious thought, careful planning, and untiring industry crowned at last by selection to represent others in various fields. In the upper left picture are the boys who qualified to try for acceptance at the various service academies. Reading from bottom to top are Jon Kidneigh, Jerry Cronin, Roger Cook, and John Goldtrap. At the upper right are the fellows who had it on the football fields so well that every poll and every coach and every team in the state recognized them as being the most. They were the ALL-STATERS of football—Mike Tipton and Ralph Sorenson. While the boys were being recognized for their abilities in math and science, the senior girls had secret hopes of being chosen D.A.R. Representative. Below we have the lucky girls. In the center is Betsy Crowell, chosen as the Good Citizen; to her right is Mary Jo Begley and to her left is Liz Robertson, the two girls who placed as runners-up.

Runners-Up

One of the greatest assets of a leader is proficiency in speech. Milton Adamson, better known as "Nickie" or "Casey Jones" points out on the blackboard the list of practice sessions which led him to the city championship in the Voice of Democracy contest. As an award he received a scholarship to Casper College. Milton was the second place winner in the state. He is pictured at the upper left. The girl climbing the stairs is Shirley Tucker, who by her smile shows that she reached the plateau of the semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition. If she reached the final plateau a free ticket to education was her prize. An early start in the lessons and practices of leadership was begun by these 1956 freshmen, Eddie Stuckenhoff and Stephen Cross, who at Colorado A. and M. won superior ratings in radio news-casting and in prose reading.

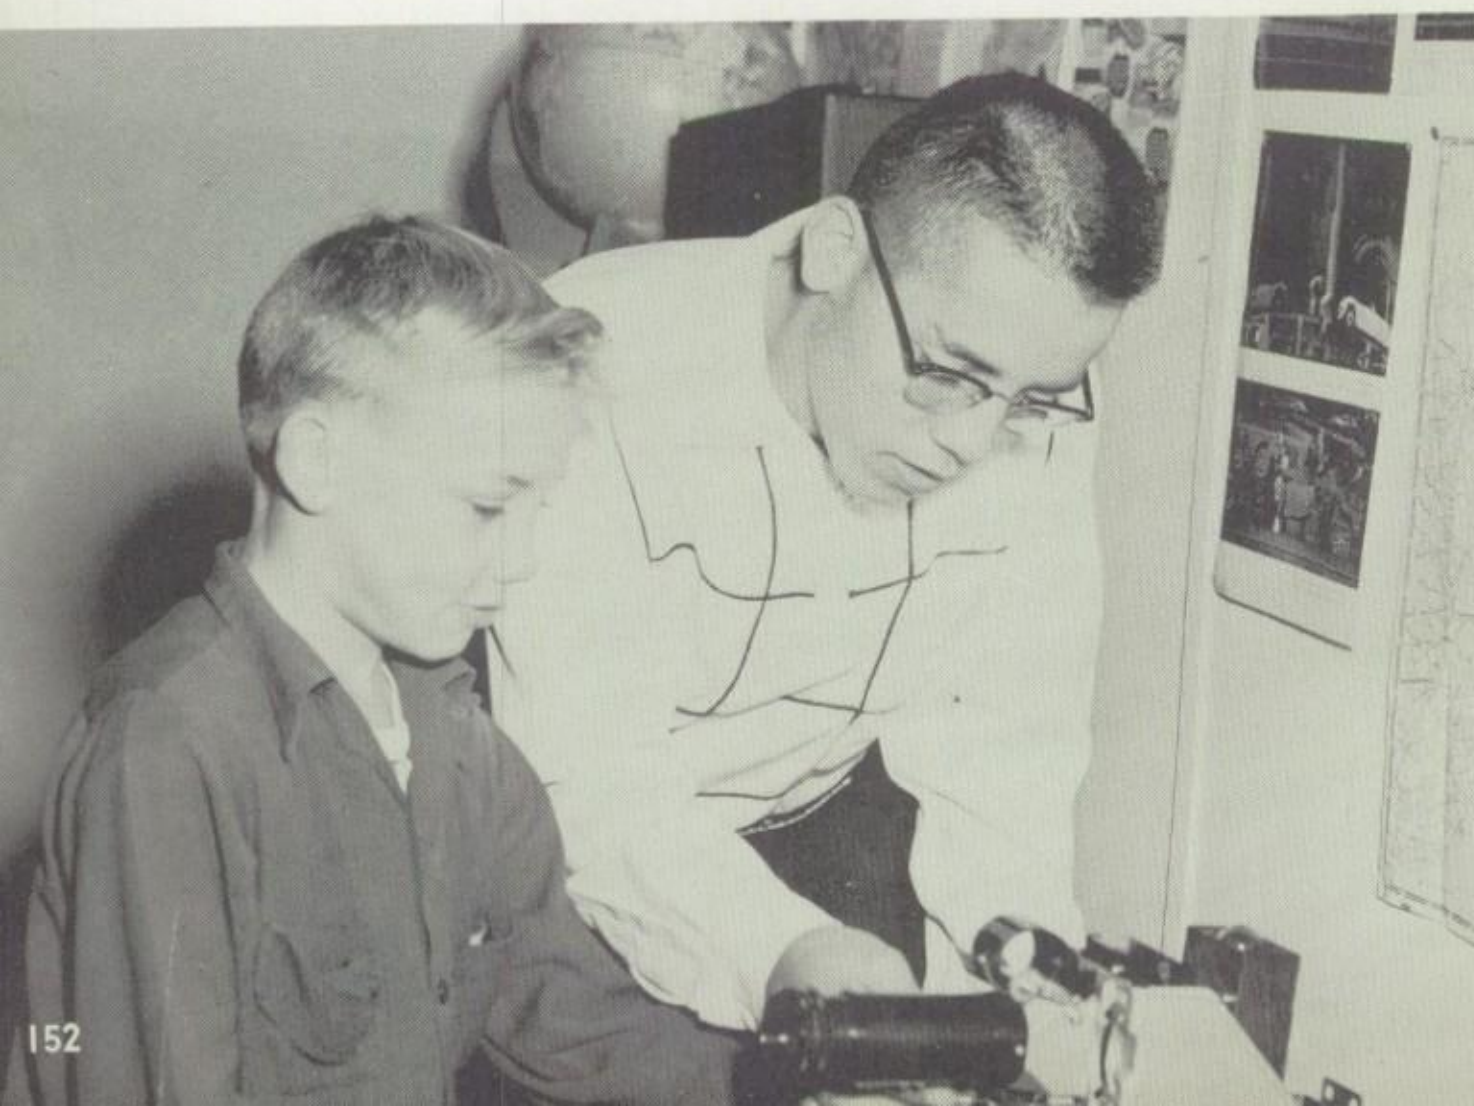

Patti Parker, a future teacher, helps some of the younger members of our future student body at Lincoln school through the mystery of reading.

High Points in the Year

Mr. Walter Savage, Business Manager, Mr. C. H. Thompson, President of the Board of Education, and Mr. Morgan, Superintendent of Schools, are preparing for the radio addresses which they gave explaining the bond issue so successfully that the voters of the community said yes to renovating the high school and old junior high into a modern plant.

Herb Trujillo is giving instruction in visual aids to a mighty interested pupil.
